Dear Kate Bolin,

The domain(s) listed below are going to expire in 73 days. Renew now before it's too late...

intergalacticprimate.com - 26/04/2025 (59 Days)

If you have payment details stored on your account and the domain is set to auto renew, then we will attempt to renew it automatically 14 days before expiry. If you do not wish this domain to auto renew, please login to your account straight away and disable the auto renew in your Domains > Manage Domains menu.

IMPORTANT: If you do not want this domain to renew but have NOT disabled auto renew and have credit card details stored on the system then this domain will automatically renew and can't be refunded. Please login to your client area and disable auto renew under Domains > Manage Domains if you want to avoid this. Renewals are subject to terms and conditions, to read these in full please view them on our website.

Should you allow the domain to expire, you will be able to renew it for up to 30 days after the renewal date. During this time, the domain will not be accessible, so any web site or email services associated with it will stop working.
